How To Read Your Bill

Contact ANEC

We will be happy to assist you with any questions concerning your bill. Please contact our office by calling 757-787-9750 or 800-431-2632 during our regular hours from 7:30 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. You may also contact us by e-mail at our website www.anec.com.

Distribution Delivery Service

Charges for delivering electricity from ANEC to your home or business. This "distribution delivery service" is regulated by the State Corporation Commission.

The customer delivery charge is the cost of maintaining your service, regardless of the kilowatts used.

Electricity Supply Service

Charges for the generation and transmission of electricity.

Mass Mailing Opt Out/Opt In

A&N Electric Cooperative (ANEC) is required to make available to any licensed competitive service provider, a mass list containing account information for all of our customers. This list will be updated every six months. If you do not want to be included on the mass list, you must notify ANEC that you choose to opt out. If you have previously chosen to opt out and change your mind, you must opt in to be included on the next list.

Additional Information

The back of your bill now provides information regarding automatic direct debit of your checking or savings account or automatic debit to your Visa or MasterCard. The bar graph shows your past 12 months' use of electricity at a glance. Also, included are messages and other information you may find useful.

Paying Your Bill

Pay your bill online at www.anec.com.

Sign up for automatic bank draft or have your bill charged to your MasterCard or Visa each month.

Our cashiers will accept your payment or you may use our convenient drive-thru during business hours. Bring your bill with you to ensure proper credit to your account. A night depository is available for your use after hours.

Mail your check or money order and your bill stub to ANEC. If you prefer to pay with Visa or MasterCard, enter your credit card number and expiration date on the back of the bill, sign the stub and return it to our office.

What do I owe and when is it due?

The total amount due upon receipt of this bill is shown here. If this amount is not paid by the date indicated, a late charge will be added.

A disconnection notice will appear at the top and bottom of your bill if balances are past due. If the past due amount is not paid by the date indicated, your account will be subject to disconnection without further notice.
